

Supporting Careers Education in Psychology

The following careers link with the teaching and learning of each key stage across the curriculum.

Note - this is only a small example of the careers available to Psychology students. Ensure you speak to your classroom teacher for further information about certain careers.

Key Stage 4	Key Stage 5
Psychological Disorders: Clinical or counselling Psychologist Language thought and communication: Customer service roles, occupational Psychologist, Human resources Roles in education: Such as a teacher/ lecturer, educational psychologist Research Methods: Assistant Psychologist Development: social care; support worker, youth worker, Nursery practitioner, child psychologist, developmental psychologist	Social Influence + Attachment: social care; support worker, youth worker Biopsychology + cognitive approaches + Psychopathology; medicine and healthcare, cognitive neuroscience research, psychiatrist, clinical Psychologist Attachment: child psychologist, developmental psychologist Roles in education: Such as a teacher/ lecturer, educational psychologist Research Methods: Assistant Psychologist

