

Economics Super-Curriculum

2019

Vyners School, Warren Road, Ickenham, UB10 8AB
www.vynersschool.org.uk
Contact: nmcdonough@vynersschool.org.uk

CONTENTS

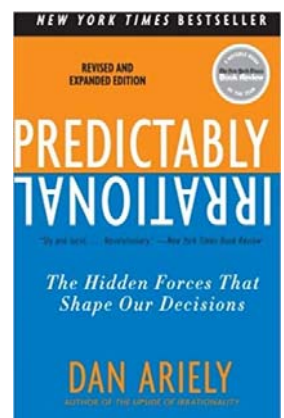

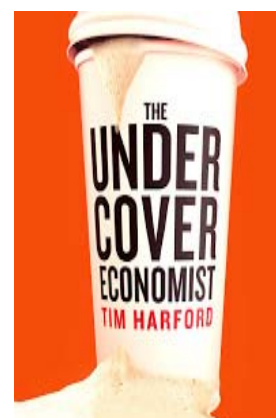

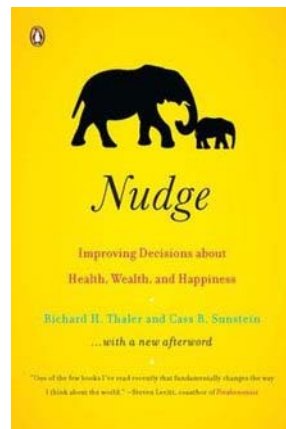

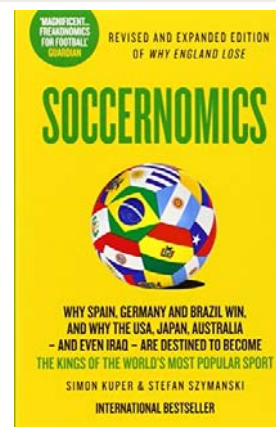

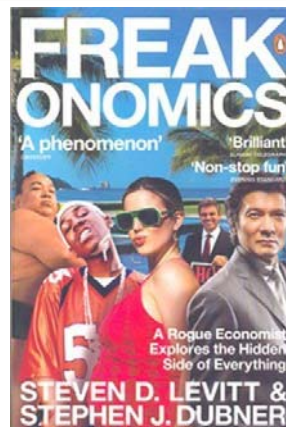

1. Further Reading
2. TED talks
3. Places to visit and things to watch

There are hundreds of books you can read which will enhance your understanding of how Economics applies to real life. Here is a small sample.

"The conventional wisdom is often wrong." Steven D. Levitt, Freakonomics

"Never under-estimate the power of inertia." Richard Thaler, Nudge

"Football is not merely a small business. It is a bad one." Simon Kuper, Soccernomics

TED Talk topics that might be of interest:

- Financial crisis*
- Immigration*
- Motivation*
- Behavioural economics*
- Gender inequality*
- Racial inequality*
- Gambling*
- Brexit*
- Ageing population*

We ♥ TED Talks

TED Talks
These are 10 – 15 minute video clips found on youtube where somebody gives a talk on a particular topic of interest.

There are many places you can visit to enhance your understanding of Economics.

- 1) The City of London (Moorgate, Liverpool St. etc.)
- 2) Canary Wharf
- 3) Bank of England museum
- 4) Factory visits e.g. Mini cars in Oxford
- 5) Paris, Berlin, Brussels for cultural differences
- 6) Manchester, Newcastle, Glasgow for regional differences in the UK

Canary Wharf

Paris

There are many series, documentaries and films you can watch e.g.

1. The Apprentice
2. Dragon's Den
3. Inside the factory
4. The Big Short
5. Niall Ferguson

