

ABC Questioning Technique

Promotes more in-depth responses to questions and encourages alternative viewpoints.

How it works

Pose a question to the group and select a student to respond (A). Ask another student to build on A's response (B) and a third student to challenge B's point of view (C).

Alternatively pose a question and elicit three different responses where each student has to build on the previous answer.